"Faith tends by its very nature to express itself in artistic forms and in historical witnesses which have an intrinsic evangelizing force and cultural value, before which the Church is called to lend its utmost attention."

PONTIFICAL COMMISSION FOR THE CULTURAL PATRIMONY OF THE CHURCH

LITURGICAL DESIGNERS, ARTISTS & ARTISANS SINCE 1952

The Importance of the Art-Historical Patrimony

The cultural treasures of the Church make up the specific patrimony of the Christian community. At the same time, as a result of the universal dimension of the Christian message, they belong to the whole of humanity. Their end is the same as the Church’s mission in its twofold work of Christian evangelization and promoting the human being. Their value lies in highlighting the activity of inculturating the faith.

In fact, since cultural goods are an expression of historical memory, they allow one to discover the path of faith as portrayed by the works of different generations. Their artistic value reveals the creative capacity of artists, craftsmen and local guild traditions that have been able to imprint on what is visible their religious experience and the devotion of the Christian community. On account of their value as culture, they hand on to society today the history of individuals and communities of human and Christian wisdom in a given area and at a specific time. Their liturgical significance means they were made for divine worship. Their usefulness for all the faithful means that they allow each individual to enjoy them as a legitimate user without becoming an exclusive owner. The Pontifical Commission for the Cultural Heritage of the Church.

We respectfully offer a handpicked selection of treasured items on behalf of other parishes exclusively to Catholic churches. These priceless liturgical furnishings, appointments, art-work and art glass might easily be refinished and worked into your environment at very reasonable prices compared to what it would cost to reproduce.

These item are available exclusively to Catholic churches and can be refinished to fit harmoniously into your sacred space by our Custom Studio artists. The cost of dismantling, crating and shipping is included. The cost of installation is not included.

“Sacred art is true and beautiful when its form corresponds to its particular vocation: evoking and glorifying, in faith and adoration, the transcendent mystery of God—the surpassing invisible beauty of truth and love visible in Christ, who “reflects the glory of God and bears the very stamp of his nature,” in whom “the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily.” This spiritual beauty of God is reflected in the most holy Virgin Mother of God, the angels, and saints. Genuine sacred art draws man to adoration, to prayer, and to the love of God, Creator and Savior, the Holy One and Sanctifier.” Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2502

History of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart

The Most Reverend Nicholas A. Gallagher, the third Bishop of Galveston, established Sacred Heart Parish as the fourth parish in Houston, Texas on November 22, 1896 to serve the growing Catholic population of Houston. The Reverend Thomas Keaney was appointed the first pastor.

Property facing Pierce and Fannin Streets was purchased on March 11, 1897. Plans for a Gothic church and a two-story Annex were drawn by Mr. O. Lorehn, and the cornerstone was laid on May 16, 1897 with Bishop Gallagher officiating. The church was built on the corner of Pierce and San Jacinto Streets with brick donated by Mr. J.T. Brady. The church was dedicated to God’s service by Bishop Gallagher on November 6, 1897. The first rectory consisted of a single room attached to the rear of the church.

Bishop Gallagher laid the cornerstone of the present Sacred Heart Church on June 11, 1911. The church was dedicated to God’s service on April 14, 1912. The cost of the new church was $96, 669.00. The main altar was a gift from the Scanlan sisters. The side altar to the Blessed Virgin was a gift from Mrs. J.O. Carr, and the side altar to St. Joseph was a gift from Mrs. Frank E. Russell. The Fourteen Stations of the Cross were a gift from Mrs. L.J. Tuffly.

Monsignor John J. Roach, the sixth pastor, had the church air-conditioned in 1953, and a central heating unit installed. Property on the corner of Fannin and Calhoun Streets was acquired on April 29, 1954, thus giving the parish ownership of the entire block bounded by Pierce, San Jacinto, Calhoun, and Fannin Streets. Old rooming houses occupying the newly purchased property were demolished, and the entire free area behind the parish buildings was hard-topped and enclosed with an iron fence to serve both as a playground and a parking lot. The interior of the church was remodeled in 1964 with all the walls paneled with wood. Due to declining enrollment and increased costs of operation, Sacred Heart School was regretfully closed in May 1967 after 70 years of continuous service in Catholic education. The classroom building now houses the parish religious education program.

The Diamond Jubilee of Sacred Heart Co-Cathedral was celebrated on November 20, 1971. The Most Reverend Wendelin J. Nold, the fifth bishop, presided and concelebrated at the Mass and preached the homily, while the Most Reverend John L. Morkovsky, the Apostolic Administrator of the diocese, was the principal celebrant.

The latest interior renovation of the Co-Cathedral was completed in 1990. The rededication of Sacred Heart Co-Cathedral occurred on March 25, 1990 with the Most Reverend Joseph A. Fiorenza, the seventh bishop, as the presiding celebrant. The sanctuary was renovated, and a new episcopal chair and ambo were added. The depiction of the Last Supper in the present, new altar was preserved from the original high altar. The three new mosaics were designed and made in Italy and installed by Italo Botti of Chicago. The mosaics were a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Robertson in memory of Monsignor John J. Roach, the sixth pastor. The mosaic of Christ the pantocrator above the episcopal chair represents Jesus as the chief shepherd and teacher of the church. The chair on which Jesus sits and the episcopal chair are identical, thus expressing that it is Christ who is the true shepherd and teacher of the diocese. The mosaic over the new tabernacle is a Eucharistic symbol taken from the miracle of the multiplication of the five loaves and two fish (John 6:1-15). It is similar to a 4th century mosaic in a church in Capernaum. Above this mosaic image is the Coat of Arms for Pope John Paul II. The tabernacle was a gift from Davis and Estelle Maloney. The mosaic over the new baptismal font depicts a baptismal theme of flowing water from a shell symbolizing our sharing in the death and resurrection of Jesus by the power of the Holy Spirit. Above this mosaic image is the Diocesan Seal.

The Cathedral was closed on April 8 of 2008, we are looking to preserve its artistic patrimony.
